Who's The World's Smallest and Most Powerful Robot for Nintendo GameCube?

It's Chibi-Robo! He's barely four inches tall—about the size of your finger—and his name says it all. In Japanese, Chibi-Robo means “small robot” but he's packed with power in this game for Nintendo GameCube. And Chibi's more curious and adventurous than a robot ten times his size.

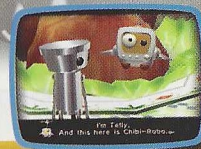

This happy, hard-working little guy belongs to Jenny Sanderson. She got Chibi for her eighth birthday. Chibi is a great helper and loves to make Jenny and her family happy. He's curious and resourceful, too. To get the job done throughout the house, he'll use gadgets like an old toothbrush for scrubbing or a spoon for shoveling.

But it's not always easy for Chibi. His days are filled with challenges and adventures. If he's not careful, the evil Spydorz will jump on him, and the Free Rangers will attack him. Chibi is ready, though. He's got plenty of tools to protect himself. With the Chibi-Copter, he can float from the ground. The Chibi-Blaster destroys the Spydorz and clears his path. A special mug protects him from the Free Rangers. A squirter helps him clean the house and complete some difficult quests. He's got other high-tech gadgets too.

Chibi has special costumes that give him super powers. When he puts on his Frog Suit, he can talk to Jenny and other frogs. Wearing his Ghost Suit, he can disguise himself as a ghost and scare the toys. When he puts on Pajamas, day changes to night.

And the best part is that you can get all of the great Chibi-Robo action on your Nintendo GameCube. Do you have jobs you'd like the smallest, most powerful robot to do for you? Then check out Chibi-Robo at

Chibi Super-Maze Challenge

Chibi-Robo was so busy blasting the Spydorz and battling the Free Rangers that he lost Jenny in one of the rooms of the house. He really wants to get back to her—and Jenny wants to find him, too.

Now it's your turn to help Chibi! Grab a friend and pick a character. Then, race to see who can get to the finish line first. (Here's a hint: Every time Chibi passes over one of the power plugs, , he earns happy points—and it means you're on the right path.) Answers on page 6.

A Costume in Code

As Chibi-Robo helps Jenny and the family, he finds costumes that give him special powers, and he changes them as needed—whether it's to talk to Jenny or to do battle with the Spydorz. Below are the names (and descriptions) of six of his costumes. Can you figure out number 7?

1. the original CHIBI-ROBO Suit (Chibi's original costume; he has no special powers when he wears this suit)
2. the DOG Suit (disguises Chibi as a dog, which lets him talk to the family dog)
3. the GHOST Suit (Chibi appears as a ghost and scares his enemies)
4. PAJAMAS (allow Chibi to change daytime to nighttime)
5. the TRAUMA Suit (helps him collapse to the ground and appear hurt to fool his enemies)
6. the DRAKE REDCREST Suit (named after a superhero friend of Chibi's; this costume helps Chibi complete certain quests)

Here's how to find out what his seventh costume is: Use a pencil to shade every box in the grid that contains a letter that also appears in red in any of the other costume names above. The shaded letters will spell out the answer. Answer on page 6. Don't peek!
